

Two Weeks To Go! - March 11, 2015 - Register Now!

Alternative Financing for Affordable Housing

The one-day workshop will explore alternative financing resources to produce affordable housing in your community. Alternative financing sources will be presented by the National Development Council, N.C. Housing Finance Agency and U.S. Department of Agriculture - Rural Development.

The workshop is a must attend for large and small cities, counties and nonprofits looking for new and creative ways to boost affordable housing production in their communities.

When: Wednesday, March 11, 2015

Time: 10:00 a.m. - 3:00 p.m.

Where: U. S. Department of Housing and Urban Development Office
4th Floor, Training Room
2306 West Meadowview Road
Greensboro, N. C. 27407

Cost: NCCDA Member: $45.00 per person
Other Attendee: $55.00 per person
(covers lunch and administrative expenses)

Registration: Register online at www.nccda.net or download the registration form on the website and mail to:

NCCDA
P. O. Box 480068
Charlotte, N. C. 28269

Featured Workshop Speakers

John Downs, Consultant,
National Development Council

"Will introduce participants to New Market Tax Credits (NMTCs) and how they can be used to support affordable housing development"

Scott Farmer, Director of Rental Investments, N.C. Housing Finance Agency (NCHFA)

"Will discuss programs at NCHFA that support affordable housing development such as Low Income Housing Tax Credits (LIHTCs) and Community Partners Loan Pool"

William Kennedy, Director, Single Family Housing Program, U.S. Department of Agriculture - Rural Development (USDA)

"Will expose participants to programs within USDA that support affordable housing development such as Multi-Family Direct Loans and Single Family Direct Loans"

Go to www.nccda.net to see more training opportunities under the "What's New" Section.

North Carolina Community Development Association
P. O. Box 480086
Charlotte, N. C. 28269

North Carolina Community Development Association is a private, nonprofit organization providing information, training, advocacy and connecting opportunities for community and economic development practitioners.

Copyright © 2015
North Carolina Community Development Association, Inc.
All Rights Reserved.

If you prefer to be removed from this event's emailing list, click remove my name.